(4) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

(5) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXXVI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury chalans are not accepted. Postal orders, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "the Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced persons' fee.

For the purpose of the concessions referred to above the definition of "Displaced Person" will be as follows:—

Definition.—"Displaced Person" means a person ordinarily resident in the territories now comprising Pakistan, who has arrived from the said territory after the end of December 1950 in the Indian Union on account of civil disturbances or fear of such disturbances or the partition of India and intends to take up his permanent residence in the Union of India.

Note.—(i) "A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is a bona fide displaced person and came out to India after the end of December 1950, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature," in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concessions must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a district officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(6) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(7) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(8) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(6) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(7) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Dentists Act, 1948 (XVI of 1948,) came into force with effect from the 29th March, 1948, in all the then Provinces of India. It has also been extended to the newly created Part C States, e.g., Himachal Pradesh, Vindhya Pradesh, and Bhopal. In consultation with the Government of Part B States, it is now proposed to extend it to all Part B States except Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Under the existing Act Indian citizens who did not possess any recognised dental qualifications, but had been engaged in practice as dentists as their principal means of livelihood for a period of not less than 5 years prior to the commencement of the Act, had been allowed registration under the Act at the time of first preparation of registers in States. Certain displaced persons who had migrated to India from Pakistan after the first preparation of the Registers and who did not possess any recognised dental qualifications but who had been engaged in the profession of dentistry for their livelihood in Pakistan claimed similar facilities for registration as were given to Indian citizens. Since it is not possible to accede to their request without amending the Act, it is proposed to amend the Act for the purpose.

3. Under section 33(2) temporary registration was allowed for a period of 5 years if one had been engaged in practice as a dentist as his principal means of livelihood for a period of not less than 2 years during the five years prior to the commencement of the Act, but permananet registration to such persons is admissible only if they could pass within a period of 5 years after the commencement of the Act an examination which satisfies the requirements of the Council. Since enough training facilities for the dentists do not exist in the country many dentists who were temporarily registered under the Act could not qualify for permanent registration. In order to enable them to pass an examination, it is proposed to give them more time to pass the examination. For this purpose the five year period is intended to be extended to 10 years.

4. Under section 3(c) of the existing Act, 4 seats are available on the Dental Council of India to be filled by election from among themselves by the heads of dental colleges in States which grant recognised dental qualification. Since there is only one dental college in India which grants dental qualifications the other 3 seats meant for the heads of Dental Colleges on the Dental Council of India have remained vacant. It is now proposed to fill the vacancies by throwing open the election to heads of dental colleges which train students for recognised dental qualifications.

5. Under the existing Act a foreign national is not entitled to registration even if he possesses a recognised dental qualification unless by the law and practice of the State or country to which such person belongs, persons of Indian origin holding dental qualifications registrable in that State or country are permitted to enter and practise the profession of dentistry in such a State or country. It is therefore, proposed on grounds of expediency and propriety to permit, irrespective of considerations of reciprocity, foreigners holding reputable dental qualifications who are employed for teaching or research in dental institutions in the country, to have temporary registration for the period of their employment or for a period of five years, whichever is shorter, provided that such foreigners do not practise dentistry for personal gain.

This opportunity is also being taken to make some other minor and consequential amendments in the Act which have been found necessary during the past 6 years since its enactment.

AMRIT KAUR.

NEW DELHI :

Dated the 27th April, 1954.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The extension of the Act to Part B States would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India and from the revenues of the Governments of Part B States to which the Act is proposed to be extended. The additional expenditure that is likely to be incurred from the Consolidated Fund of India is indicated in the following paragraphs.

2. After the Dentists Act, 1948, is extended to Part B States, these States will become entitled to send two representatives each (one elected and one nominated) as members of the Dental Council of India. Assuming that the State Governments will agree to bear the expenditure on the Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance of the 7 members to be nominated by them under clause (c) of section 3 of the Act, as is being done by the Governments of Part A States except Bihar, the estimated expenditure on the Travelling Allowance of the remaining 7 elected members from the Part B States would amount to Rs. 2,740 per annum as detailed below :—

	Rs.	Rs
Mysore .. .. / Travancore-Cochin ..	670 × 2	= 1,340/-
Rajasthan, Pepsu and Madhya Bharat.	200 × 3	= 600/-
Hyderabad..	300 × 1	= 300/-
Saurashtra	500 × 1	= 500/-
	Total ..	= 2,740/- per annum.

This expenditure is on the assumption that the Dental Council of India will meet once in a year at New Delhi.

3. In addition to the expenditure on the Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance, the Central Government will be responsible for meeting the expenditure on the election of one member from each Part B State under clause (a) of section 3 of the Dentists Act, 1948. In view of the fact that the amount of expenditure on such elections in the States will depend on the size of the electoral roll and other local conditions in each State and must vary from State to State, any estimate of such expenditure can only be tentative. In connection with a recent election to the Dental Council of India from the State of Madras, the actual expenditure amounted to Rs. 1,145. If we base our estimate on this figure, the cost of 7 elections in the Part B States may amount to Rs. 7,000 every five years.

4. The total estimated expenditure involved on account of the extension to all Part B States of the Dentists Act, 1948, will, therefore, be as follows :—

Recurring.

(i) Travelling Allowance of 7 members from Part B States. .. Rs. 2,740 per annum.

The expenditure will, however, amount to Rs. 5,480 or approximately Rs 5,500 if the Council holds two meetings during a financial year.

(ii) Expenditure on elections to the Council .. Rs. 7,000 every 5 years.

In this connection it may also be mentioned that after the Dentists Act, 1948 is extended to the Part B States, the income of the Dental Council of India will also increase as the Council is entitled, under section 53 of the Act, to 25 per cent. of the registration fees realised by the States Dental Councils during a year.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

3. Extension of the jurisdiction of any University to other State or States.—For the purpose of this Act—

(a) the jurisdiction of any Indian University shall extend to a part or to the whole of any State or States on the mutual agreement of the concerned people of that part respectively;

(b) any University shall extend its jurisdiction to a part of other State having linguistic affinity.

4. Mixed Jurisdiction of Universities.—In certain part or bilingual parts of any State more than one University can have or extend their jurisdiction on the basis of the mutual co-operation.

5. Appointment of an advisory committee. —(1) The Government may for the purpose of advising and assisting the University authorities in the discharge of their functions with regard to jurisdiction and other matters connected therewith, appoint such an independent or a joint advisory committee as it may think fit for the whole of India or any part thereof.

8. Transfer of some colleges to certain Universities.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in any other enactment the affiliation of all colleges whose managing bodies favourably decide under the jurisdiction of any University shall immediately before the appointed day be transferred to such a University whose jurisdiction is notified by the Advisory Committee.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Many University authorities are anxious to extend their jurisdiction other than their own States, in order to keep contact with their own linguistic areas. Moreover if University jurisdiction is settled according to the linguistic areas then the number of the Universities will be reduced than what they are today. This act will provide the best cultural atmosphere among various States. The present Bill gives effect to the proposals of many University Senates.

PART VI.—Bills introduced in Parliament of India; Reports of Select Committees presented to Parliament; and Bills published before introduction in Parliament.

COUNCIL OF STATES.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of States on the 6th May, 1954:

BILL NO. XI OF 1954.

A Bill further to amend the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

BE IT enacted by Parliament in the Fifth Year of our Republic as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1954.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 1954.

2. Amendment of section 25A, Act XIV of 1947.—In sub-section (2) of section 25A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), for the Explanation, the following Explanation shall be substituted, namely:—

"Explanation.—In this section and in sections 25C, 25D and 25E, 'industrial establishment' means—

(i) a factory as defined in clause (m) of section 2 of the Factories Act, 1948 (LXIII of 1948); or

(ii) a mine as defined in clause (j) of section 2 of the Mines Act, 1952 (XXXV of 1952); or

3. Amendment of section 25J, Act XIV of 1947.—In the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 25J of the principal Act, after the words "which a workman has under", the words, figures and brackets "the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (XI of 1948) or any notification or order issued thereunder or" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1953, provides for payment of lay-off compensation to workers in factories covered by the Factories Act 1948, and in mines coming under the Mines Act, 1952. Workers in plantations have, however, not been included in the Act. In view of the insistent demand of plantation workers, the question of extending the provisions relating to lay-off benefits to them was placed before the Meeting of the Industrial Committee on Plantations held at Calcutta in January, 1954. The Committee recommended that the provisions of the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1953, relating to lay-off should be applied to the plantation industry with effect from the 1st April, 1954, subject to the condition that none of the provisions of the Act derogated from the effect of any statutory notifications issued by Governments or of any agreements or contracts entered into between the parties requiring the provision by employers of a minimum number of days of work or wages or compensation to workers. The Bill is intended to give statutory effect to the above recommendation.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This, the third instalment of the Hindu Code, seeks to amend and codify the law relating to intestate succession. The original draft of the provisions relating to intestate succession contained in the Rau Committee's Bill underwent substantial changes in the hands of the Select Committee which considered the Rau Committee's Bill in 1948. This Bill follows to a large extent the scheme adopted by the Select Committee but takes into account the various suggestions made from time to time for the amendment of the Select Committee's version of the Bill. In particular, special provisions have been included for regulating succession to the property of intestates governed by the Marumakkattayam, Aliyasantana or Nambudri laws of inheritance.

The notes on clauses explain in detail the various provisions in the Bill.

C. C. BISWAS.

NEW DELHI:
The 20th May, 1954.

Notes on clauses.

Clause 1.—Like the Hindu Marriage and Divorce Bill and the Hindu Minority and Guardianship Bill, this law also will have extraterritorial effect.

Clauses 2 and 4.—These clauses are and will be a common feature of all Bills relating to Hindu law.

Clause 3.—The expression "related" is so defined that the rights of illegitimate children are safeguarded as against their mother and their own legitimate descendants. This definition follows the Rau Committee's draft where it is pointed out that no confine relationship to legitimate kinship might prevent a Naikin's property from passing to her son or daughter and that there is also no reason why Naikin's children should not have mutual rights of inheritance.

The question of domicile becomes relevant with respect to clause 6 as domicile is determined by the usual rules applicable thereto as laid down in sections 6 to 18 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925.

Clause 5.—This clause excludes from the application of this law joint-family property which under the Mitakshara law devolves on heirs by the rule of survivorship and property to which the Indian Succession Act, 1925, applies by reason of a marriage having taken place under the Special Marriage Act, 1872. It also excludes estates which are in their nature or by custom impartible.

Clause 6.—This clause lays down the well-known principles which apply to regulate succession to the movable and immovable properties of an intestate. (Compare section 5 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925.)

Clause 7.—Under the existing Hindu law, rules of succession exist whereby a reunited son may be preferred to a son who remains separate; a maiden daughter may be preferred to a married daughter; as between married daughters, a married daughter who is indigent may be preferred to a married daughter who is possessed of means and so on. In view of the scheme of succession adopted in the Bill, these distinctions have necessarily to be ruled out.

Clauses 8 to 10.—Before 1937, the "simultaneous heir" of a male Hindu dying intestate comprised only the son, the son of a pre-deceased son and the son of a pre-deceased son of a pre-deceased son. The Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, added to the list the widows of the first two as well as the intestate's own widow. Class I of the preferential heirs in the Schedule now adds to the existing list of simultaneous heirs, the daughter, and further seeks, as far as possible, to treat the other grandchildren of an intestate, whose parent has pre-deceased the intestate, on the same footing as the son of a pre-deceased son, except that in the former case the share to be divided among the children will be less than in the latter case.

The following illustrations explain how shares will be allotted in certain cases :—

Illustrations.

(1) The surviving heirs of an intestate are three sons, A, B and C, five grandsons by a pre-deceased son, D, and two great grandsons by a pre-deceased son of another pre-deceased son E. A, B and C take one share each under rule 2, and the branches of D and E get one share each under rule 3. The grandsons in D's branch and the great grandsons in E's branch divide the share allotted to their respective branches equally by virtue of rule 4. Each son of the intestate, therefore, takes one-fifth of the heritable property, each grandson one-twenty-fifth, and each great-grandson one-tenth.

(2) Only a widow or daughter or daughter's daughter or daughter's son or son's daughter survives an intestate. She or he takes the whole of the heritable property.

(3) The surviving heirs are the widow and two grandsons by a pre-deceased son. The widow takes one share under rule 1 and the grandsons together take one share under rule 3. The widow therefore takes one-half of the heritable property and each grandson one-fourth.

(4) The surviving heirs are a widow, a daughter and two grandchildren by a pre-deceased daughter. The widow takes one share under rule 1; the daughter gets half a share under rule 5; and the grandchildren by the pre-deceased daughter divide the share allotted to the mother, viz., half a share equally between themselves by the virtue of rule 6. The widow, therefore, gets, one-half of the heritable property, the daughter one-fourth and each grandchild one-eighth.

(5) The surviving heirs are a daughter and the widow of a pre-deceased son. Under rule 5, the daughter takes half a share and under rule 3 the daughter-in-law also takes half a share. The heritable property is thus equally divided between the two.

(6) The surviving heirs are a son, a daughter and the widow of a pre-deceased son. Under rule 2, the son gets one share; under rule 5 the daughter gets half a share; under rule 3 the widow of the pre-deceased son gets half a share. In the result, the son takes half the property and the daughter and the daughter-in-law takes one-fourth each.

(7) The surviving heirs are a son, a daughter, and the widow and the son of a pre-deceased son. Under rule 2 the son gets one share; under rule 5 the daughter gets half a share; under rule 3 the widow and the son of a pre-deceased son get between them one share which has then to be equally distributed between them. In the result, the son takes two-fifths of the property and the other one-fifth each.

(8) The surviving heirs are—

(a) a widow,

(b) a son,

(c) a daughter,

(d) the widow of a pre-deceased son,

(e) the widow and a son and daughter of another pre-deceased son

Under rule 1 the widow gets one share; under rule 2 the gets one share; under rule 5 the daughter gets half share under rule 3 the widow of the first mentioned pre-deceased son gets half a share; under the same rule the heirs mentioned in (c) above between them get one share which has then to be distributed among them. In the result, the widow and the son of an intestate each take one-fourth of the property, the daughter and the daughter-in-law mentioned in (d) each take one-eighth, the widow and the daughter of the other pre-deceased son mentioned in (e) take one-tenth each and the daughter of the pre-deceased son one-twentieth.

(9) The surviving heirs are—

(a) a son by a pre-deceased son,

(b) a son and daughter by a pre-deceased daughter,

(c) two daughters by a pre-deceased son.

Under rule 3 the son of the pre-deceased son gets one share; under rule the son and daughter of the pre-deceased daughter between them get half a share; and under rule 3 the two daughters of the pre-deceased son mentioned in (c) divide half a share equally between themselves. In the result, the son of the pre-deceased son takes one half the son and daughter of the pre-deceased daughter mentioned in (b) take one sixth and one twelfth respectively and the two daughters of the pre-deceased son mentioned in (c) take one eighth each.

(10) The surviving heirs are—

(a) a son,

(b) the widow and three sons of a pre-deceased son,

(c) the widow of a pre-deceased son of the pre-deceased son referred to in (b).

The son gets one share under rule 2, and the heirs in entries (b) and (c) together get one share. The latter share should be distributed by virtue of rule 4 so that the widow and each of the sons in entry (b) get one portion each and the widow in entry (c) gets one-half of such a portion. In the result, the intestate's son gets one-half of the heritable property, the widow of his pre-deceased son gets one-ninth, each of the three sons of such pre-deceased son also gets one-ninth and the widow of the intestate's grandson gets one-eighteenth.

Clauses 11 to 14.—With respect to the other heirs, the scheme of this Bill follows the scheme of the Select Committee on the Hindu Code which found the Rau Committee's enumerated heirs defective because the list of heirs was too large and no limit was set to the agnates or cognates entitled to succeed. That Select Committee also found the order of preference not satisfactory and did not like uniformity in succession to be broken in any case. Apart from the changes made in clause 10 and the Schedule, the present Bill follows the scheme of the Select Committee, the heirs being rearranged on a more rational basis and relatives who are far removed from the intestate and persons who are not heirs at all, like Acharya and Sishya, being eliminated from the list of heirs. Further, certain persons have been grouped together for simultaneous succession, like father and mother, brother and sister and so on. The number of possible heirs of agnates and cognates is also narrowed down.

The illustrations giving below explain how the rules laid down in clause 14 will operate :—

Illustrations.

In the following illustrations, the letters F and M stand for the father and mother respectively in that portion of the line which ascends from the intestate to the common ancestor, and the letters S and D for the son and daughter respectively in that portion of the line which descends from the common ancestor to the heir. Thus MFSS stands for the intestate's mother's father's son's son (mother's brother's son) and FDS for the intestate's father's daughter's son (sister's son).

(i) The competing heirs are (1) FFSSD (father's brother's son's daughter) and (2) FDDS (sister's daughter's son). Although No. (2) is descended from a nearer ancestor, yet, as No. (1) is an agnate while No. (2) is only a cognate, No. (1) is preferred to No. (2).

(ii) The competing heirs are (1) SDSS (son's daughter's son's son) and (2) FDDS (sister's daughter's son). No. (1) who has no degree of ascent is preferred to No. (2) who has one degree of ascent.

(iii) The competing heirs are (1) FDDD (sister's daughter's daughter) and (2) MFSSD (maternal uncle's son's daughter). The former who has one degree of ascent is preferred to the latter who has two such degrees.

(iv) The competing heirs are (1) FDSSS (sister's son's son's son) and (2) MFSSD (maternal uncle's son's daughter). The former who has only one degree of ascent is preferred to the latter who has two such degrees.

(v) The competing heirs are (1) MFDSS (mother's sister's son's son) and (2) MFFDS (mother's father's sister's son). The former who has two degrees of ascent is preferred to the latter who has three such degrees.

(vi) The competing heirs are (1) MFM (mother's father's mother) and (2) FFFDSS (father's father's sister's son's son). The number of degrees of ascent in both cases is the same, viz., three, but the former has no degree of descent while the latter has three such degrees. The former is therefore preferred.

(vii) The competing heirs are (1) FMF (father's mother's father) and (2) MFF (mother's father's father). The number of degrees of ascent in both the cases is the same, and there are no degrees of descent. The lines of the two heirs diverge the very first point, No. (1) being in the male line and No. (2) in the female line. No. (1) is preferred to No. (2).

(viii) The competing heirs are (1) FDSS (sister's son's son) and (2) FDDS (sister's daughter's son). The heirs are equally near both in ascent and descent. The dissimilarity in the lines occurs at the third point. At this point, No. (1) is in the male line and No. (2 in the female line. No. (1) is therefore preferred.

(ix) The competing heirs are (1) FMFSS (father's mother's brother's son) (2) FMFDS (father's mother's sister's son). The former is preferred.

(x) The competing heirs are (1) FDDS (sister's daughter's son) and (2 FDDD (sister's daughter's daughter). The former is preferred

(xi) The competing heirs are a daughter's daughter's son of one siste (FDDDS) and a daughter's daughter's son of another siste (FDDDS). Both of them take the estate in equal shares.

Clause 15.—The illustrations given below explain how degrees are to b computed.

Illustrations.

(i) The heir to be considered is the father's mother's father of th intestate. He has no degrees of descent, but has three degrees o ascent represented in order by (1) the intestate's father, (2) tha father's mother, and (3) her father (the heir).

(ii) The heir to be considered is the father's mother's father's mother o the intestate. She has no degrees of descent, but has four degree of ascent represented in order by (1) the intestate's father, (2) tha father's mother, (3) her father, and (4) his mother (the heir).

(iii) The heir to be considered is the son's daughter's son's daughter o the intestate. She has no degrees of ascent, but has four degrees o descent represented in order by (1) the intestate's son, (2) tha son's daughter, (3) her son, and (4) his daughter (the heir).

(iv) The heir to be considered is the mother's father's father's daughter's son of the intestate. He has three degrees of ascent represented in order by (1) the intestate's mother, (2) her father, and (3) that father's father, and two degrees of decent represented in order by (1) the daughter of the common ancestor, viz., the mother's father's father and (2) her son (the heir).

Clauses 16 to 25.—These clauses lay down special rules of succession in the case of male Hindus governed by the Marumakkhattayam, Aliyasantana or Nambudri laws of inheritance. A departure has necessarily to be made in these cases because the laws applicable to these persons have always been based on the matriarchate while the laws in the rest of India are founded upon the agnatic family. These clauses are based on a draft furnished by the Government of Madras.

Clause 26.—The Rau Committee vested a Hindu woman with full rights over stridhana property and laid down certain rules of succession with respect to stridhana. The Select Committee on the Hindu Code incorporated the substance of all these provisions in a separate Chapter headed "Woman's Property" and provided that after the commencement of the Code, whatever property was acquired by a woman became her absolute property and devolved on her own heirs. Clause 26 follows the Select Committee's draft and declares that whatever property is acquired by a Hindu woman after this law, it shall be her absolute property, and the term "property" is defined as comprehensively as possible for the purpose.

Clauses 27 and 28.—Under the existing law, succession to stridhana property varies according as a woman is married or unmarried and according as she is married in an approved form or in an unapproved form. It also varies according to the source from which the stridhana came. The rules of descent again vary from school to school. Clause 27, however, evolves a new and uniform scheme of succession to a woman's property and clause 28 regulates the manner of distribution thereof.

Clause 29.—This clause contains a saving with respect to properties in which a female Hindu has at the commencement of this law only a limited estate

Clauses 30 and 31.—See the notes to clauses 16 to 25.

Clause 32.—Under the existing law, where a person enters into a religious order renouncing all worldly affairs, his action is tantamount to civil death and it excludes him altogether from inheritance. But if he acquires property subsequent to the renunciation, it passes to his spiritual heirs This clause is in accordance with the existing law.

Clause 33.—The illustrations given below explain the scheme of this clause.

Illustrations.

(i) A brother by full blood is preferred to a brother by half blood; but a brother by half blood succeeds before a brother's son by full blood, a brother being a nearer heir than a brother's son.

(ii) A paternal uncle by half blood is preferred to a Paternal uncle's son by full blood, an uncle being a nearer heir than an uncle's son.

(iii) A full brother's daughter's daughter is preferred to a half brother's daughter's daughter but the former is not preferred to a half brother's daughter's son, as the nature of the relationship is not the same in the two cases. The latter, who is a nearer heir by virtue of rule 4 in section 14 is preferred although he is only related by half blood.

Clauses 34, 35 and 36.—These clauses are self-explanatory and are in accordance with the existing law.

Clause 37.—Where any immovable property or any business devolves upon male and female heirs, this clause would enable the male heirs, if they so desire, to compulsorily buy off the share of the female heirs.

Clause 38.—See the notes to clause 32.

Clause 39.—Under the existing law, chastity during the life time of the husband is a condition precedent to the taking by the widow of her husband's estate unless the unchastity hod been condoned by him.

Clause 40.—The principle underlying this clause is that the widow is the surviving half of her husband and, therefore, when she remarries, she ceases to continue to be such. (Section 2 of the Hindu Widows Remarriage Act, 1856, also contains a somewhat similar provision.) As the law stands remarriage disables a widow of a gotraja sapinda from succeeding to the property of a male Hindu when on the date the succession opens, she has ceased to be the widow of a gotraja sapinda by reason of remarriage. This rule is being applied to the widows mentioned in the Schedule who are the only widows now entitled to succeed.

Clause 41.—A murderer even if not disqualified under Hindu law from succeeding to the estate of the person whom he has murdered is so disqualified upon principles of justice, equity and good conscience. The murderer is not to be regarded as the stock for a fresh line of descent but should be regarded as non-existent when the succession opens (51 I.A. 368).

Clause 42.—Change of religion and loss of caste, which at one time were grounds of forfeiture of property and of exclusion from inheritance, have ceased to be so since the passing of the Caste Disabilities Removal Act, 1850. But that Act applies only to protect the actual person who either renounces his religion or has been excommunicated. Consequently, where the property of a Muslim converted from Hinduism has passed according to Muslim law to his descendants, Hindu collaterals cannot claim by virtue of that Act to succeed under Hindu law. This clause, therefore, lays down that the heir should be a Hindu when the succession opens. Reconversion after the succession opens will not, therefore, be possible and this restriction will in most cases remove any abuse of the provision contained in the clause.

Clause 44.—Under the Hindu law, blindness, deafness, dumbness, want of any limb or organ, lunacy, idiocy, leprosy and other incurable disease disqualified a person from inheriting but the Hindu Inheritance (Removal of Disabilities) Act, 1928, declared that no person shall be excluded from inheritance on any of these grounds unless he was from birth a lunatic or an idiot. This clause seeks to remove all such disqualifications.

Clause 45.—Escheat as such has not been unknown to Hindu law.

Clause 46.—This clause confirms the existing law that a Hindu may dispose of by testamentary disposition any property which he is capable of so disposing of.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

itment to the urban units of the Territorial Army has not so far en satisfactory, especially in the technical units. The Bill seeks to ipose compulsory liability for enrolment in the Territorial Army for rtain categories of employees, namely, Government servants and em-yees of specified public utility concerns in selected age groups. It is oposed to utilize this liability to fill up deficiencies in the authorised engtli of the Territorial Army units. The Bill, if enacted, will also ilitate expansion of the Territorial Army in an emergency. Public lity concerns have been included in the compulsory enrolment scheme order to ensure that essential services continue to function in an ergency.

The Bill seeks to provide the necessary legal basis for calling for partiars regarding age, calling up for inquiry and medical examination, of rsons liable to be enrolled under the scheme, the registration and calling of the persons considered fit for service in the Territorial Army and er allied matters.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The scheme for the liability to compulsory enrolment of Government vants and certain categories of employees of public utility concerns olves expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. The scheme at present intended to enable Government to fill up deficiencies in the horised strengths of certain Territorial Army Units. The expenditure the pay and allowances of the enrolled personnel and requirement of ining officers, etc. will be the same as for the normal authorised strength Territorial Army Units. A small amount of expenditure may have to incurred on the registration of personnel covered by the scheme for pulsory enrolment and on the administrative arrangements for their up, where necessary.

An extract from the explanatory notes to the Defence Services Estimates for the year 1954-55 is given below.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

The Territorial Army was constituted under the Territorial Army Act, 1948 and commenced raising in 1949. When fully formed, it will be composed of combatant technical and administrative units. The personnel of the Territorial Army are given periodical military training. During the training period and when embodied for service, they are entitled to pay, allowances, etc., at the same rates as for corresponding ranks of the regular Indian Forces.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION.

The Bill which seeks to amend the Territorial Army Act, 1948, imposes a liability on all persons employed under the Government or in a public utility service, who have attained the age of twenty years but have not completed the age of forty years for compulsory military service. Having imposed a potential liability for compulsory military service on all such persons, the Bill leaves most of the matters relating to administrative details for giving effect to the scheme, from the stage of requisitioning the services of such persons to the stage of their being actually called out for service in the Territorial Army, to be prescribed by subordinate legislation by the Central Government. For the successful implementation of the scheme, the powers to determine the circumstances under which the services of such persons should be requisitioned for the purpose of performing service in the Territorial Army, and the authorities by which the services of such persons should be requisitioned, to prescribe the standard of physical fitness and other qualifications of such persons, to prescribe forms for obtaining particulars from such persons, to lay down the procedure to be followed in holding medical and other examinations, etc., have been delegated to the Central Government to be prescribed by means of subordinate legislation, as it is not practicable for Parliament to lay down such details in the Bill. Some of the powers delegated to the Central Government such as the power to determine the circumstances under which the services of persons liable for compulsory military service in the Territorial Army should be requisitioned, etc., which may not appear prima facie to be normal in character are really so if one has regard to the fact that in enactments relating to the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, it is not possible for Parliament to lay down matters relating to such administrative details in the law itself. The proposed delegations are, therefore, normal.

Military training is imparted in camps which are set up at convenient places both in urban and in rural areas. All able-bodied male citizens between the ages of 18 and 40, except serving and ex-personnel of the Territorial Army, ex-servicemen and ex-cadets of the National Cadet Corps, are eligible to join the Auxiliary Territorial Force which does not carry any liability for compulsory military service.

The Bill seeks to provide the legal basis for the imparting of training and lays down the broad principles for the establishment of training camps and for the exercise of disciplinary control over the trainees while in the camps. All other matters of administrative details connected with training, remuneration payable to trainees, issue of stores, etc., will be regulated by means of rules to be framed under the proposed law.

MAHAVIR TYAGI.

NEW DELHI;
The 4th May, 1954.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The formation of the Auxiliary Territorial Force, originally called the Auxiliary Territorial Army, involves expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. At the rural camps, the trainees are provided with free rations and tented or other accommodation for the period of training. Trainees in urban camps are not required to stay in camp, but they are entitled to a small refreshment allowance. All trainees are given an out-of-pocket allowance of Rs. 5 on completion of training. A rural camp has hitherto been of one week's duration and in urban camps, training has been given for 3 hours per day for two weeks. In future, it is proposed to increase the duration of the rural camp to 10 days and of an urban camp to 20 days. Each camp is intended to train about 480 persons.

2. The cost of training will vary from year to year depending on the number of persons to be trained. It is estimated that the expenditure involved in a rural camp will be about Rs. 9,000 per camp and in an urban camp Rs. 5,000 per camp. This amount does not take into account the pay and allowances of the training teams which are provided by the Army out of its existing resources.

3. As an experimental measure, 36 camps were set up in 1953-54 and financial provision necessary for similar camps and training has been included in the Defence Services Estimates for 1954-55 under Demand No. 12 and voted by the Parliament. An extract from the Explanatory notes to the Defence Services Estimates is enclosed.

AN EXTRACT FROM THE EXPLANATORY NOTES TO THE DEFENCE SERVICES ESTIMATES FOR THE YEAR 1954-55.

The Territorial Army was constituted under the Territorial Army Act, 1948 and commenced raising in 1949. When fully formed, it will be composed of combatant, technical and administrative units. The personnel of the Territorial Army are given periodical military training. During the training period and when embodied for service, they are entitled to pay, allowances, etc., at the same rates as for corresponding ranks of the regular Indian Forces.

Commencing from the year 1953-54, a new organisation given so far the name of Auxiliary Territorial Army has been formed. All able-bodied Indian male citizens between the ages of 18 and 40 years are eligible to join this organisation. Training in these Forces consists of drill without arms, elementary field engineering and physical training, etc.

EMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION IN THE AUXILIARY TERRITORIAL FORCE BILL, 1954

The broad features of the scheme, namely, the constitution of the Auxiliary erritorial Force, the establishment and closure of camps (both rural and ban), the enrolment of citizens of India as members of the Force, the commission of officers by members of the Force and the penalties to which they will liable are laid down in the Bill itself. With a view to a succesful implementation of the scheme, the powers to provide matters of administrative tails, such as the prescription of the authorities by which members of the orce may be enrolled, the manner in which, the period for which, and the nditions subject to which, such persons may be enrolled, the training, discipline, duties and obligations which such persons may undergo, observe, perrm or discharge, the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, ch persons may be called out for training or duties, the allowances or other muneration to be paid to such persons, the conditions subject to which such rsons may be discharged, etc., have been delegated to the Central Governent to prescribe by means of subordinate legislation, as it is not practicable r Parliament to visualise, at the moment, the actual working of the scheme id to lay down in the Bill itself all the necessary details. Some of the owers delegated to the Central Government such as the powers to appoint uthorities by which persons may be enrolled and to prescribe the training, scipline, duties and obligations which such enrolled persons may undergo, bserve, or discharge and the allowances to be paid to such enrolled persons e, which may not appear prima facie to be normal in character are really f one has regard to the fact that in enactments relating to the Army, the avy and the Air Force, it is not possible for Parliament to lay down matters administrative details in the law itself.

"3A.	Substances (other than food) intended to affect the structure or any function of the human body or intended to be used for the destruction of vermins or insects which cause disease in human beings or animals.	Such standards as may be prescribed."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Drugs Act, 1940, which provides for the regulation of the import, manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs and prescribes the standards of quality of drugs, has been in force since April, 1947. In the light of the experience gained in the working of the Act during the last seven years, it is proposed to make certain amendments in the Act.

The term 'drug' as defined in the Act at present does not cover chemical contraceptives and insecticides. It is proposed to extend the scope of definition of the term so as to cover such of the contraceptives as well as insecticides as may be notified by the Central Government from time to time in the Official Gazette, so that their standards may be controlled where necessary. It has further been found necessary that with a view to maintaining uniformity throughout the States the power to make rules under Chapter IV with respect to the manufacture, sale and distribution of drugs, which is at present vested in the State Governments should be entrusted to the Central Government.

There have been complaints that the penalties provided in the Act for the contravention of the provisions thereof, are inadequate. The penalties provided in the Act are being enhanced so as to make them deterrent. Opportunity has also been taken to make certain other minor amendments.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

Section 5 of the Drugs Act, 1940 provides for the constitution of a Board (called the Drugs Technical Advisory Board) to advise the Central Government and the State Governments on technical matters arising out of the administration of the Act. Clause (2) of section 5 lays down the composition of the Drugs Technical Advisory Board. It is inter alia proposed to make certain amendments in section 5(2) of the Act which will result in the membership of the Board being increased by two. One of the additional members will be the Drugs Controller, India. As the meetings of the Board are held at Delhi which is the headquarters of the Drugs Controller, India, no expenditure will be incurred on his travelling allowance or daily allowance for attending the meetings of the Board. The other additional member will be elected by the Pharmacy Council of India. Assuming that one meeting of the Board is held in a year it is estimated that there will be an additional expenditure of about Rs. 400 per annum on his travelling allowance and daily allowance.

HOUSE OF THE PEOPLE.

The following Bill was introduced in the House of the People on the th February, 1954:—

BILL No. 58 OF 1953.

A bill to preserve the milch and draught cattle of the country.

Be it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be led the Anti Cattle Slaughter Act, 19 .

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in subject or context,—

(a) "cattle" shall include cows, bullocks, their calves, he and she buffaloes and their calves;

(b) "person" shall include any company or association or body of persons whether incorporated or not.

3. Stopping of cattle slaughter.—No person shall kill or slaughter ttle either for food or for any other purpose either in a licensed ughter-house or any public or private place and no person shall owingly permit the use of any premises owned, occupied or possessed by m for any such killing or slaughtering.

4. Penalty and procedure.—(1) Any person who contravenes the ovisions of section 3 and kills or causes to be killed or slaughtered y cattle, shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment which may tend to three years or with fine which may extend to one thousand pees or with both.

(2) The offence shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The directive in the Constitution of India for stopping cow slaughter has remained a dead letter so far. It is imperative to give effect to the pressing sentiments of the vast majority of people and of the unanimous expression of the will of the people as expressed in the Constitution. Further, India being an agricultural country and being deficient in milk needs cattle. The cows and buffaloes and the bullocks provide these two pressing needs. To meet this constitutional directive and for the preservation of draught and milch animals, it is necessary to take steps for stoppage of slaughter of cows, bulls, bullocks, he and she buffaloes and calves of these animals. Hence this Bill.

NOTIFICATION.

No. C S.7(34)/54-L.—Under rule 49 of the Rules of Procedure and nduct of Business in the Council of States, the Chairman has been eased to order the publication in the Gazette of India of the following ll together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, d the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly pub- hed for general information:—

(TO BE INTRODUCED IN THE COUNCIL OF STATES.)

BILL No. XV OF 1954.

Bill to provide for the extension of the law relating to the punishment of the offence of unlawful possession of railway stores, as now in force, to the whole of India and to re-enact its provisions.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definition.—In this Act, "railway stores" includes any article used intended to be used in the construction, operation or maintenance of a ilway.

3. Unlawful possession of railway stores.—Whoever is found, or is oved to have been, in possession of any article of railway stores all, if the court sees reasonable grounds for believing such article be or to have been the property of any railway administration, unless he oves that the article came into his possession lawfully, be punishable with prisonment for a term which may extend to five years, or with fine, or th both.

4. Repeals and savings.—(1) The Railway Stores (Unlawful Possession Ordinance, 1944 (XIX of 1944), is hereby repealed.

(2) If, immediately before the commencement of this Act, there is in force in any Part B State, to which this Act now extends, any law which corresponds to this Act, that corresponding law also shall, on such commencement, stand repealed.

(3) Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897), shall apply to the repeal by this Act of the Railway Stores (Unlawful Possession) Ordinance, 1944 (XIX of 1944), or of any corresponding law as if the Ordinance or the corresponding law, as the case may be, were an enactment.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Railway Stores (Unlawful Possession) Ordinance, 1944 (XIX of 1944) was promulgated on the 13th May 1944, with a view to preventing persons from having unlawful possession of articles of railway stores, a thing of frequent occurrence towards the end of the last war. This Ordinance is still in force by virtue of the provision contained in sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the India and Burma (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1940 (a law enacted by the British Parliament on the 27th June, 1940). It extends to the whole of former British India, that is, the whole of India except the present Part B States. In order to check smuggling of railway stores of considerable value to Part B States where the said Ordinance is not in force and to meet certain other difficulties which are being experienced in launching prosecution against smugglers or culprits in those States it has become necessary to extend the scope of the said Ordinance to the Part B States. The present Bill seeks to achieve this purpose.

LOK SABHA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 3rd September, 954:—

BILL NO. 19 OF 1954.

A Bill further to amend the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Electricity (Supply) mendment Act, 19 .

2. Amendment of section 77, Act LIV of 1948.—In section 77 of the lectricity (Supply) Act, 1948 (hereinafter referred to as the principal ct),—

(a) after sub-section 1, the following new sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(1A) if any licensee or other person pays any bonus except as permitted by sub-clause (xiii) of clause (b) of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph XVII of the Sixth Schedule, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both."; and

(b) in sub-section (3) the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

"or by the President or Secretary of a registered Trade Union of the employees of the licensee or other persons against whom the complaint is made.

Explanation.—Where the complaint is against a licensee and also some other person or persons jointly, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this sub-section if the complainant is the President or Secretary of a registered Trade Union of the employees either of the licensee or of any other person complained against."

3. Amendment of the Sixth Schedule, Act LIV of 1948.—In paraaph XVII of the Sixth Schedule to the principal Act, after sub-clause i) of clause (b) of sub-paragraph (2) the following new sub-clause shall inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been so inserted, namely:—

"(xiii) All expenditure incurred on account of payment of bonus to employees earning less than one thousand rupees a month exclusive of such bonus."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Sixth Schedule to the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 enables ever Electricity Supply concern to earn what is therein called "clear profit" whic is to be not more than 30 per cent. in excess of what is therein called th "reasonable return". Paragraph XVII(2) of the Sixth Schedule provid that "clear profit" is to be calculated by deducting the items of expenditu and special appropriations mentioned in clauses (b) & (c) of sub-paragraph (from the items of income mentioned in clause (a) thereof. The Labour Appe late Tribunal in the case of the Bombay Suburban Electricity Supply Lt decided that bonus could not be paid to workmen out of the reasonable retu nor could it be deducted as an expenditure allowable under paragraph XV (2)(b) in calculating clear profit. Taking advantage of this decision ma Electricity Supply concerns, including the British owned Calcutta Electr Supply Corporation which make huge profits of about five thousand rupees p worker have refused to pay legitimate bonus to their workers. To reme this situation it is proposed to amend paragraph XVII(2)(b) with a vi to including bonus as an item of allowable expenditure in calculating cle profit. This amendment has been made retrospective in order to establi the claims of the workmen to bonus which was their legitimate due in rece years. At the same time as it is necessary to provide against financ denudation of this country through payment of large amounts to forei employees in the name of bonus, the allowable expenditure has been restri ed to bonus paid to employees earning less than one thousand rupees a mon exclusive of such bonus, and section 77 has been amended to penalise t payment of bonus to employees earning one thousand rupees or more

It is also not a rare experience that State Governments often withho sanction or authority to prosecute employers guilty of offences. So it proposed to amend section 77(3) to enable courts to take cognizance of offen against this Act on the complaint of the President or Secretary of a reg tered Trade Union of the employees of the person or concern guilty of su offences.

	(i) Ayurvedic preparations containing self-generated alcohol, which are not capable of being consumed as ordinary alcoholic beverages.	Nil.
	(ii) Ayurvedic preparations containing self-generated alcohol, which are capable of being consumed as ordinary alcoholic beverages.	Rupees three per gallon.
	(iii) All others.	Rupees five per gallon the strength of Londo proof spirit.
3.	Medicinal and toilet preparations, not containing alcohol, but containing opium, Indian hemp, or other narcotic drug or narcotic.	Nil.

Explanation I.—"Gallon" means a measure of capacity which is equivalent to 160 fluid ounces.

Explanation II.—"London proof spirit" means that mixture of ethyl alcohol and distilled water which at the temperature of 51 degrees Fahrenheit weight exactly 12/13th parts of an equal measure of distilled water at the same temperature.

Explanation III.—Where in respect of any dutiable goods the unit of assessment for the purpose of any duty under this Act is a gallon of the strength of London proof spirit, the duty shall be increased or reduced in such proportion as the strength of the dutiable goods is greater or less than that of the London proof spirit.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

By virtue of entry 40 in List II in the Seventh Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, medicinal and toilet preparations containing alcohol, etc., were subjected to Provincial excise duties. Each Provincial Government fixed its own rates of duty and followed its own procedure to regulate the imports from and exports to other Provinces of such preparations, so that the industry manufacturing these preparations had to contend with several handicaps imposed by such diversities in rates and procedure. In order to secure uniformity, the entry relating to excise duty on medicinal and toilet preparations containing alcohol, etc., were transferred under the Constitution from the State list to the Union list.

2. The present Bill is intended to implement this provision in the Constitution, and proposes uniform rates of excise duty and a uniform procedure for the collection thereof. In the case of Part A and Part B States, the actual collection of the duties will be left to the Governments of the States, as required by article 268 of the Constitution. The existing duties, and the existing procedure for collection under the pre-Constitution statutes of the States which are at present protected under article 277 will be replaced by the rates and the procedure proposed in the Bill.

3. The duties specified in the Schedule are, generally speaking, based on the recommendations of an Expert Committee appointed by Government.

NEW DELHI;
The 6th September, 1954.

MEMORANDUM.

Clauses 3(3) and 20 of the Bill empower the Central Government to make rules. The matters in respect of which such rules may be made are specified therein. The Central Government is also empowered to issue notifications and orders in certain cases.

2. In all Excise enactments of the States as well as of the Union, it has been found necessary both in the interests of Government and of the taxpayers that the Government shall have the power to make rules for the regulation of procedural matters. Procedural difficulties arise from time to time in the light of experience gained. It is, therefore, desirable that the provisions of law relating to procedure should be flexible enough to permit adaptation to the varying circumstances of each case.

3. This is particularly so in the case of the present measure which will require a synthesis to be effected from a vast body of the existing rules and regulations in force in the States, having regard to the sole object of the measure, namely, to bring about uniformity of treatment, in excise matters, of medicinal and toilet preparations containing alcohol, etc. This will be a highly complicated process because, firstly, the excise duty will be collected and retained by the State Governments and secondly, a certain amount of flexibility in statutory operation would be necessary if spurious preparations which are being put on the market in the guise of medicines are not to defeat the prohibition policies of the State Governments under the protection of the present measure.

4. Some of the provisions of the Bill have accordingly been framed so as to lay down only broad principles. Matters such as classification of the preparations as capable or not capable of being used as ordinary alcoholic beverages, regulation, for the purposes of the Act, of production, storage and movement, etc., have been left to be regulated by rules.

5. Provision has been made in clause 19(4) of the Bill for the Rules made under the Act to be placed on the table of both the Houses of Parliament.

6 The matter in respect of which rules can be made under the Bill are more or less the same as those in respect of which rules can be made under section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944.

3. Application by an ex-army person for prosecution.—Any ex-army person, who thinks that he has been punished without jurisdiction or in excess of jurisdiction or in excess of the quantum prescribed by the Army Act, 1950, the Air Force Act, 1932, and the Indian Army Act, 1911 may make an application to prosecute any person for any act done in the execution or intended execution of the Army Act, 1950, the Indian Army Act, 1911 or the Air Force Act, 1932 or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of the said Acts and such a petition shall be deemed to have been made under section 190(c) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898) and no sanction for the prosecution of the person as required by Section 197 of the said Code shall be necessary for taking cognizance of the offence alleged to have been committed in the execution or intended execution of the aforesaid Acts or in respect of any leglect or default in the execution thereof.

5. Institution of suits for declaration of title to pension, etc.—Any ex army person may institute a suit for declaration of his title to pension earned by him under army regulations or usage of the army without giving a notice to the Central Government as required by Section 80 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908). The declaration of his title to pension shall be deemed sufficient for all purposes of the suit as if he had claimed for arrears of his pension. The court fee payable on the arrears of pension may be recovered, if the declaration of his title is granted and the ex-army person prays for a decree with respect to the arrears, after the order of the court issued with respect to the declaration of his title.

6. Jurisdiction of High Court to issue writs.—Every High Court, having jurisdiction over the place where the ex-army person was enlisted or where his services were terminated or where the incident with respect to any neglect or default in the execution of the Indian Army Act, 1911, the Army Act, 1950, and the Air Force, Act, 1932, and the Air Force Act, 1950, occurred, shall have jurisdiction to issue writ, order or direction to the Central Government with respect to any emolument payable to a soldier under army regulations or usage of the army. An application for the issue of a writ, order or direction shall not be dismissed without issuing a notice to the respondent. The previous sanction of the Central Government required by Section 197 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), shall not be necessary for the prosecution of any person for any Act done in the execution or intended execution of the Army Act, 1950, the Indian Army Act, 1911 or the Air Force Act, 1932, or the Air Force Act, 1950, or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of the said Acts.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the Indian Army Act, 1911, and in the Army Act, 1950, there is no provision to rectify any error or wrong due to any neglect or default in the execution of the said Acts. The Indian Air Force Act, 1932, is also silent as respects remedy against wrongs done by any person purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty in executing the said Act. Wrongs done in the execution of these Acts, when there is any dispute, usually go unrectified. It is a general principle of law that in every case where a man is wronged or endamaged, he shall have remedy. In the British Army Act, 1881, provision has been made for action, prosecution or proceeding against any person for acts done in the execution or intended execution of that Act or in respect of any neglect or default in the execution of that Act. The view that an officer, soldier or any other person cannot claim his pay, allowances and pension as a matter of right in a court of law has now become obsolete by virtue of the recognition of 'Fundamental Rights' by the Constitution itself. The want of a legal remedy to rectify wrongs done has the effect of an implied immunity for those purporting to act in the discharge of their official duty. This kind of immunity is not contemplated by the Army and the Air Force Acts. It is considered that no implied immunity should not be availed of to the prejudice of natural justice. Hence this Bill.

LOK SABHA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on 6th September 1954:—

BILL NO. 40 OF 1954.

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Constitution (Third Amendment) Act, 1954.

2. Amendment of the Seventh Schedule.—In the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, for entry 33 of List III, the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"33. Trade and commerce in, and the production, supply and distribution of,—

(a) the products of any industry the control of which by the Union is declared by Parliament by law to be expedient in the public interest, and imported goods of the same kind as such products;

(b) foodstuffs, including edible oilseeds and oils;

(c) cattle fodder, including oilcakes and other concentrates;

(d) raw cotton, whether ginned or unginned, and cotton seed; and

(e) raw jute.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

While trade and commerce within the State, and production, supply and distribution of goods in general are within the legislative and executive authority of the States, Parliament is competent, by virtue of entry 33 of List III, to legislate in respect of products of industries declared to be under Union control. In addition, Parliament is empowered by article 369, for a period of five years from the commencement of the Constitution, to legislate in respect of certain specified essential commodities. Some of these, like cotton and woollen textiles, paper, coal, iron, and steel, being products of industries under Union control, could continue to be regulated by central legislation even after article 369 lapses on the 25th January, 1955. Other essential commodities, like foodstuffs, cattle fodder, raw cotton and cotton seed, would after that date be outside the legislative authority of Parliament.

The position in respect of foodstuffs and cattle fodder at present is fairly comfortable, but it will not be advisable for the Centre to be divested of all legal powers to control their production, supply and distribution. Cotton, the basic raw material for one of our largest industries, is in short supply in the sense that our own production is not sufficient for our needs. Since jute goods are the most important item in our export trade it is desirable that the Centre should have the power to control the production, supply and distribution of raw jute.

The Bill accordingly proposes an amplification of entry 33 of List III in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution. Besides placing four classes of essential commodities in that entry, it is proposed to include also imported goods of the same kind as the products of centralised industries, in order that the Centre may be in a position to exercise full control over the development of such industries.

LOK SABHA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 3rd September 1954:—

BILL No. 29 OF 1954.

A Bill further to amend the Army Act, 1950.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Army (Amendment) Act, 19 .

2. Insertion of new section 61A in Act XLVI of 1950.—After section 61 of the Army Act, 1950, the following new section shall be inserted, namely:—

"61A. Punishment for false and wrongful preparation of Pay bill, etc., by a public officer, and Jurisdiction of High Courts.—(1) When a public officer, not subject to this Act, having Jurisdiction over the record of an officer, junior commissioned officer, soldier or other person subject to this Act, charged with the duty of preparing, passing or countersigning documents, which constitute valuable security, in relation to the afore-mentioned persons, omits to prepare the record or prepares it in a manner which he knows or believes to be false, or which omission or manner of preparation will have the effect of retaining or detaining any sum payable on account of pay, allowances or pension by the State, of any person, such public officer shall be deemed to be guilty of abetment of the offence mentioned in section 61 and shall be liable to be punished in accordance with the procedure laid down in sub-section (2).

(2) The President, the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India, or the Commander-in-Chief on complaint being made by the person affected by the afore-mentioned omission or manner, shall institute an inquiry or cause inquiries to be instituted and if on the report of the inquiry, it is found that the omission made or the manner employed was unauthorised by this Act, may order the public officer, responsible for the retention or detention of the afore-mentioned emoluments to make good the same from his property and tender an unconditional apology in respect of the retention or detention committed by him. If the authority, to whom complaint is made, be of the opinion that culpability involved in the case is very serious, he may order the public officer to face a trial as if he has committed the abetment of the offence mentioned in section 61.

(3) Any High Court having jurisdiction over the place where the abetment is committed or where the consequences ensued, shall have jurisdiction to try the offence and may punish the offender with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The act of unlawfully detaining or refusing the pay of a person subject to the Army Act, 1950 is made punishable when the offender commits the offence of "detention of pay" after having received such pay. Where any officer, junior commissioned officer, warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or officer not subject to this Act commits the afore-said offence of "detention of pay" by making omission in an Acquittance Roll or other document or by any other manner, with the result that the pay of a person subject to this Act is detained, retained or withheld by the State, the offence goes uninvestigated and unpunished which is undesirable and as such needs to be rectified. Hence this Bill.

PART VI.—Bills introduced in Parliament of India; Reports of Select Committees presented to Parliament; and Bills published before introduction in Parliament.

RAJYA SABHA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 27th September, 1954:—

BILL NO. XVIII OF 1954.

A Bill to amend the Tea Act, 1953.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Tea (Amendment) Act, 1954.

2. Amendment of section 4, Act 29 of 1953.—In section 4 of the Tea Act, 1953, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3A) It is hereby declared that the office of member of the Board shall not disqualify its holder for being chosen as, or for being, a member of either House of Parliament."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Clause (f) of section 4(3) of the Tea Act, 1953 (29 of 1953) provides for the representation of Parliament on the Tea Board established under section 4(1) of that Act. It is also possible that among the members of the Tea Board appointed under clauses (a) to (e) and clause (h) of section 4(3) of the Tea Act, some may be either members of Parliament at the time of their appointment or chosen as such subsequently. Under section 4 of the Prevention of Disqualification (Parliament and Part C States Legislatures) Act, 1953 (1 of 1954), disqualification arising out of the membership of a statutory body (like the Tea Board), for being chosen as, or for being, a member of Parliament has been removed only temporarily, that is, uptil the 31st day of December, 1954. It is necessary to remove that disqualification permanently in relation to membership of the Tea Board, as it is desirable to have members of Parliament on the Tea Board for its successful working.

It is proposed to achieve this object by inserting a suitable provision in the Tea Act itself. Hence the present Bill.

(ii) with the duty of determining the admissibility or otherwise of the facts contained in the documents mentioned in the preceding clause, commits or abets as accessory before or after the fact, the commission of offences mentioned in clauses (a) to (c) of section 57, shall be deemed to be guilty of the afore-mentioned offences and shall on complaint being made to a High Court, by any person whether affected or not by this Act, be triable by the aforesaid court without any previous sanction of the President or of the Head of the Department to which the accused person may belong.

(2) Any High Court, having jurisdiction over the place where the offence or abetment mentioned in sub-section (1) occurred or where the consequences of the offence accrued or where the complainant resides, shall have jurisdiction to try the accused in its original jurisdiction and the accused shall be liable to be punished with imprisonment, which may extend to two years or with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or with both.

(3) No plea that the offence was committed before the commencement of the Constitution, shall constitute ground for exculpation of the offence."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

For prosecuting a person subject to the Army Act 1950, for an offence under the Act, no previous sanction of the President or of the Head of the Department to which the accused belonged is deemed necessary, whereas a person not subject to the Army Act 1950, enjoys immunity from prosecution although the offence may be the same or similar as in the case of the person subject to the Army Act 1950. Since this difference offends Article 14 of the Constitution the necessity for this Bill arises.

IRECTORATE OF AGRICULTURE, WEST BENGAL.

Calcutta, the 13th October 1953.

cond Forecast of Cotton Crop of West Bengal for 1953-54.

Season.—The weather conditions have not been vourable at the sowing time in the districts cept Howrah, Jalpaiguri and Cooch Behar. has been reported that considerable areas in districts of 24-Parganas, Midnapore and rdwan have been damaged due to heavy rain- ll at the sowing time.

Area sown.—1,150 acres have been estimated to be under cotton this year compared to 1,810 acres, the final estimate of last year.

The entire area is reported to have been sown with Parbhani American variety this year but the extent of cultivation of U.P. Deshi variety which grows only in Jalpaiguri and Midnapore is negligibly small which has not been included in this forecast in view of the fact that the area is less than 10 acres.

The decrease in acreage is due to the unfavourable weather conditions at the sowing time.

for Director of Agriculture, West Bengal.
